

I am writing to request that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

This law has allowed our family to eat dinner uninterrupted. I can stay connected to the internet, my son sleeps through his naps. This law has worked very well. We used to get between 5 and 10 calls every week. Now it is down to about 1 every two months. Please leave this law in place!